About EXPO 2012

EXPO 2012 is dedicated to the late Walter R. Cohn, Esq., who founded the Property Owners Association in 1949. We are proud to honor his vision and dedication.

What is EXPO?

EXPO offers a unique business opportunity for companies to showcase their products and services to the exclusive membership of the Property Owners Association. POA presents this annual exposition of the newest and latest techniques available to the multi-family rental property industry. Last year's EXPO attracted 60 exhibitors and more than 450 attendees. This year's event, THE WALTER R. COHN, ESQ. EXPO, promises to be better than ever.

Who Should Exhibit?

Anyone who serves the housing industry – either directly or indirectly. Today, everyone is shopping smarter than ever. EXPO is the ideal vehicle for you to display your products before the cost-conscious POA members and their guest who during the next year will need accountants, advertising, appliances, brokers, computer systems, credit checks, environmental services, exterminators, financing, financial planning, garbage bags, hardware, heating, insulation, insurance, laundry equipment, lead paint consultation, legal advice, public adjusters, tub and shower reglazing, restorations, sewer cleaning, website design and window replacement along with many other products and services. The floor is yours from 5-8pm. This will prove to be the best attended show we've hosted yet!
