ACMS IS NOW ON LINE!

The New Jersey Superior Court Civil Case Docket, including scheduling, document index, and attorney lists, are now available on line. This new application will save you much time in doing case inquiry in the Law, General Equity, and Special Civil Part. The following records for almost all active cases and recently closed cases are available at your finger tips:

- | | | |
|---|---|---------------------------|
| 1) Case management details | 6) Index of courts notices sent out | 11) Search by party name |
| 2) Documents Index | 7) Case disposition data | 12) Archived case details |
| 3) Attorney Lists | 8) Track and discovery-end-date information | |
| 4) Trial, motion, and hearing schedules | 9) Case fee receipts | |
| 5) Special civil service lists | 10) Special Civil Judgment information | |

Follow these simple steps to access your case records:

1. Go to www.njcourtsonline.com. On the first page, on the right-hand side;
2. On the left-hand side, select "Civil Case Public Access;"
3. Disable your computer's pop-up blocker;
4. Type in the characters you see in the "Security" box and accept the conditions of use;
5. Select the tab for the criteria you need to search—by docket number, party name, or use additional searches for archival records;
6. For a docket search, select the county, the docket type, the docket number, the year, then from the right-hand column under "View Details," select your search criteria;
7. Select the record you seek;
8. If the index is more than 1 page, select the Page Down Arrow from the top center of your screen; and
9. When you have reached end of the record, you can go back by clicking on the Return Arrow on the top left-hand side of your screen. You can use the icons next that to zoom, print, or E-mail your record.
